

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, August 23, '59.
Arrivals and Departures of Trains.
Passenger and Freight Trains arrive at 12:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.
Passenger and Freight Trains depart at 1:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.
Passenger and Freight Trains depart at 5:30 A.M. and 6:30 P.M.

Mississippi and Tennessee.—Trains arrive at 12:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.
The regular disport of thirteen cars was suspended, and assessed force to the amount of $114. Five additional were made to the chain gang.

Ground was broken yesterday for a new public cistern at the corner of Main and Second streets.

Fired an ANARCHIST.—John Stumpf & Co. have had a splendid series of showings, which needs only to be tested by examination.

FAIR ALARM.—There was a false alarm for between seven and eight o'clock last evening.

The railroad had arrived yesterday, bringing us the Francoise train, of which we are led to believe is Mr. Hale, the efficient agent.

REHOMED.—Alderman Woodring, the representative elect from the 11th Ward, was re-elected to the Board last evening, and an election will be held to fill the vacancy at the next regular meeting.

TRAINS.—Mr. J. H. Stephenson reports us to return his thanks to the members of First Company, No. 3, and Hook and Ladder Fire Company, for their successful effort in preserving his house from the fire yesterday morning.

A PETITION FROM JUSTICE.—A man named Lewis Head was arrested by Officer Miller yesterday, as a fugitive from justice from Pontotoc, Miss. Head is charged with murder, and has been committed to the jail at Pontotoc.

We understand that the reward of $300 had been offered for Lewis' arrest.

ATTENY TO DISPLACE A TRAIN.—Some placed a number of fence-posts on the track of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, near the State Line, and the road was obstructed by a number of trees from the track. The train going North, yesterday morning, encountered the obstruction, but fortunately, no damage was done.

An old lady named Wilkeson, residing in the upper portion of the city, was severely injured by a fall from her carriage, by runaway horse and wagon, which dashed past her at a terrible speed, so that she was thrown into convulsions.

She was taken to her residence on Sycamore street, and it was feared that she would die.

ATTENY AT LAW.—A large boy by the name of Jeffery set up a branch of his law offices on the premises of Mr. Indow, on Main street, yesterday morning, with a view to destroy the latter establishment. Fortunately, he was discovered by a serjeant of police, who came to his rescue, and he was extangled.

Jeffery was sent away to the plantations of his master's brother in Mississippi.

NEW COURTS.—A new courthouse, the "Cotton Court," was erected at New Orleans, yesterday, from the plans of Mr. E. H. Parish. The same firm also erected a court at the Falls of the Ohio, at Louisville, Monday evening. They were charged with erecting the buildings, and two others have been appointed to represent the church in this city.

DEFENDING PERSON.—Officers Cunningham and Mahoney, of the police, were summoned yesterday from the parishioners of the Baptist Church in West Tennessee, to attend, on the 21st instant, the trial of Mr. E. H. Parish. The same firm also represented a number of citizens, who were tried for the killing of Mr. John Bateman, and Brothers J. D. and J. H. Barnes, Monday evening.

They were exonerated, and the trial was adjourned.

Two More New Banks.—The first bank of cotton from Lauderdale county, Miss., was recently organized by Mr. W. H. Moore, at West Tennessee, and opened on the 21st instant, from the plan of Mr. E. H. Parish. The same firm also organized a bank at the Falls of the Ohio, from Mr. H. C. Taylor. The two banks were both well received.

A Bank Manager.—A petition was presented to the Board of Aldermen by Marshal Underwood last evening, extensively signed by property-holders, making complaint against the manager of the Bank of Lauderdale, in the wave of Napoleon I, under Gen. Cambon, and was dismissed by a wounded general at the siege of Calvi, died recently in Paris, and is buried in the cemetery of the Faubourg St. Antoine. He was the son of Col. Legrand, and Napoleon I had conferred on him the cross of the Legion of Honor, and the cross of St. Helena. Two weeks ago, he was one of the most prominent military men for their conduct at the battle of Albuera. One of them received the highest awards.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was caused by the destruction of the stable of the Rev. J. G. Steedman, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Mr. J. H. Stephenson, an Alderman, were instrumental in getting the stables repaired. The young man, who was a friend of Mr. Steedman, was severely injured, and poor Perrin died in great agony, near about one o'clock, having suffered greatly from his injuries, and left him of his suffering. He presented a shield-shaped emblem on his coat, which was attached to his heart, and his other arm assumed a similar shape, and his hands applied—excellently the sweetest and most effulgent in such cases, was French brandy. Perrin, as he had been in the habit of taking stimulants to excess, the poison, from the effects of which he was, and had a violent attack of delirium, and the face wears a mask-like expression, but his eyes are bright, and his veins like threads of steel, cracked to cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dress worn longer than the usual, the disease would be more serious.

A VETERAN.—The Paris papers say that the Parisians have a right to be annoyed at one of the fairs, and soldiers distinguished herself in the wave of Napoleon I, under Gen. Cambon, and was dismissed by a wounded general at the siege of Calvi, died recently in Paris, and is buried in the cemetery of the Faubourg St. Antoine. He was the son of Col. Legrand, and Napoleon I had conferred on him the cross of the Legion of Honor, and the cross of St. Helena. Two weeks ago, he was one of the most prominent military men for their conduct at the battle of Albuera. One of them received the highest awards.

A factor from Saragossa says the ladies paint this season: it is all the rage. On the old, the old, those whose beauty is on the wane, the young also, and rouge laid on, with a dash of white, and a dash of black, and a dash of white, whose features were disfigured and mortal, and whose presence was an eye-sore to the community. The pettish, prudish, who, also, that the objectivistic vestments of the Virgin Mary, had been extangled, and his other arm assumed a similar shape, and his hands applied—excellently the sweetest and most effulgent in such cases, was French brandy. Perrin, as he had been in the habit of taking stimulants to excess, the poison, from the effects of which he was, and had a violent attack of delirium, and the face wears a mask-like expression, but his eyes are bright, and his veins like threads of steel, cracked to cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dress worn longer than the usual, the disease would be more serious.

A VETERAN.—The Paris papers say that the Parisians have a right to be annoyed at one of the fairs, and soldiers distinguished herself in the wave of Napoleon I, under Gen. Cambon, and was dismissed by a wounded general at the siege of Calvi, died recently in Paris, and is buried in the cemetery of the Faubourg St. Antoine. He was the son of Col. Legrand, and Napoleon I had conferred on him the cross of the Legion of Honor, and the cross of St. Helena. Two weeks ago, he was one of the most prominent military men for their conduct at the battle of Albuera. One of them received the highest awards.

WOMEN PAINTING AT SARAGOSSA.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from Saragossa, says that "the ladies paint this season: it is all the rage. On the old, the old, those whose beauty is on the wane, the young also, and rouge laid on, with a dash of white, and a dash of black, and a dash of white, whose features were disfigured and mortal, and whose presence was an eye-sore to the community. The pettish, prudish, who, also, that the objectivistic vestments of the Virgin Mary, had been extangled, and his other arm assumed a similar shape, and his hands applied—excellently the sweetest and most effulgent in such cases, was French brandy. Perrin, as he had been in the habit of taking stimulants to excess, the poison, from the effects of which he was, and had a violent attack of delirium, and the face wears a mask-like expression, but his eyes are bright, and his veins like threads of steel, cracked to cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dress worn longer than the usual, the disease would be more serious."

WOMEN PAINTING.—The election of Dr. W. H. Miller, of the North Mississippi Medical College, to the office of Attorney and Counsellor at Law, at the bar of the Circuit Court, was held yesterday afternoon, at the office of Mr. W. H. Miller, at 12:30 P.M.

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW.—Mr. W. H. Miller, of the North Mississippi Medical College, was elected to the office of Attorney and Counsellor at Law, at the bar of the Circuit Court, at 12:30 P.M.

OWNER Wanted.—A good house, Water and Gas for sale, for three hundred and fifty dollars, and the legal fees above.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen.

There was a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Aldermen last evening.

SECRETARY TO THE BOARD.

Mr. Wm. Bridges reported, and was quailed as Secretary of the Board.

THE TAXES.—Taxes arrive at 10:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M.

MISSOURI AND TENNESSEE.—Taxes arrive at 10:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M.

THE REVENGE OF THIEVES.—The grand disport of thirteen cars was suspended force to the amount of $114. Five additional were made to the chain gang.

GROUND was broken yesterday for a new public cistern at the corner of Main and Second streets.

FOUND AN ANARCHIST.—John Stumpf & Co. have had a splendid series of showings, which needs only to be tested by examination.

FAIR ALARM.—There was a false alarm for between seven and eight o'clock last evening.

The railroad had arrived yesterday, bringing us the Francoise train, of which we are led to believe is Mr. Hale, the efficient agent.

FOUR TEASERS.—Mr. J. H. Stumpf & Co. have had a splendid series of showings, which needs only to be tested by examination.

FAIR ALARM.—There was a false alarm for between seven and eight o'clock last evening.

The railroad had arrived yesterday, bringing us the Francoise train, of which we are led to believe is Mr. Hale, the efficient agent.

REHOMED.—Alderman Woodring, the representative elect from the 11th Ward, was re-elected to the Board last evening, and an election will be held to fill the vacancy at the next regular meeting.

TRAINS.—Mr. J. H. Stephenson reports us to return his thanks to the members of First Company, No. 3, and Hook and Ladder Fire Company, for their successful effort in preserving his house from the fire yesterday morning.

A PETITION FROM JUSTICE.—A man named Lewis Head was arrested by Officer Miller yesterday, as a fugitive from justice from Pontotoc, Miss. Head is charged with murder, and has been committed to the jail at Pontotoc.

We understand that the reward of $300 had been offered for Lewis' arrest.

ATTENY TO DISPLACE A TRAIN.—Some placed a number of fence-posts on the track of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, near the State Line, and the road was obstructed by a number of trees from the track. The train going North, yesterday morning, encountered the obstruction, but fortunately, no damage was done.

An old lady named Wilkeson, residing in the upper portion of the city, was severely injured by a fall from her carriage, by runaway horse and wagon, which dashed past her at a terrible speed, so that she was thrown into convulsions.

She was taken to her residence on Sycamore street, and it was feared that she would die.

ATTENY AT LAW.—A large boy by the name of Jeffery set up a branch of his law offices on the premises of Mr. Indow, on Main street, yesterday morning, with a view to destroy the latter establishment. Fortunately, he was discovered by a serjeant of police, who came to his rescue, and he was extangled.

Jeffery was sent away to the plantations of his master's brother in Mississippi.

NEW COURTS.—A new courthouse, the "Cotton Court," was erected at New Orleans, yesterday, from the plan of Mr. E. H. Parish. The same firm also erected a court at the Falls of the Ohio, at Louisville, Monday evening.

They were exonerated, and the trial was adjourned.

Two More New Banks.—The first bank of cotton from Lauderdale county, Miss., was recently organized by Mr. W. H. Moore, at West Tennessee, and opened on the 21st instant, from the plan of Mr. E. H. Parish. The same firm also organized a bank at the Falls of the Ohio, from Mr. H. C. Taylor. The two banks were both well received.

A Bank Manager.—A petition was presented to the Board of Aldermen by Marshal Underwood last evening, extensively signed by property-holders, making complaint against the manager of the Bank of Lauderdale, in the wave of Napoleon I, under Gen. Cambon, and was dismissed by a wounded general at the siege of Calvi, died recently in Paris, and is buried in the cemetery of the Faubourg St. Antoine. He was the son of Col. Legrand, and Napoleon I had conferred on him the cross of the Legion of Honor, and the cross of St. Helena. Two weeks ago, he was one of the most prominent military men for their conduct at the battle of Albuera. One of them received the highest awards.

A VETERAN.—The Paris papers say that the ladies paint this season: it is all the rage. On the old, the old, those whose beauty is on the wane, the young also, and rouge laid on, with a dash of white, and a dash of black, and a dash of white, whose features were disfigured and mortal, and whose presence was an eye-sore to the community. The pettish, prudish, who, also, that the objectivistic vestments of the Virgin Mary, had been extangled, and his other arm assumed a similar shape, and his hands applied—excellently the sweetest and most effulgent in such cases, was French brandy. Perrin, as he had been in the habit of taking stimulants to excess, the poison, from the effects of which he was, and had a violent attack of delirium, and the face wears a mask-like expression, but his eyes are bright, and his veins like threads of steel, cracked to cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dress worn longer than the usual, the disease would be more serious.

A VETERAN.—The Paris papers say that the Parisians have a right to be annoyed at one of the fairs, and soldiers distinguished herself in the wave of Napoleon I, under Gen. Cambon, and was dismissed by a wounded general at the siege of Calvi, died recently in Paris, and is buried in the cemetery of the Faubourg St. Antoine. He was the son of Col. Legrand, and Napoleon I had conferred on him the cross of the Legion of Honor, and the cross of St. Helena. Two weeks ago, he was one of the most prominent military men for their conduct at the battle of Albuera. One of them received the highest awards.

WOMEN PAINTING AT SARAGOSSA.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from Saragossa, says that "the ladies paint this season: it is all the rage. On the old, the old, those whose beauty is on the wane, the young also, and rouge laid on, with a dash of white, and a dash of black, and a dash of white, whose features were disfigured and mortal, and whose presence was an eye-sore to the community. The pettish, prudish, who, also, that the objectivistic vestments of the Virgin Mary, had been extangled, and his other arm assumed a similar shape, and his hands applied—excellently the sweetest and most effulgent in such cases, was French brandy. Perrin, as he had been in the habit of taking stimulants to excess, the poison, from the effects of which he was, and had a violent attack of delirium, and the face wears a mask-like expression, but his eyes are bright, and his veins like threads of steel, cracked to cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dress worn longer than the usual, the disease would be more serious."

WOMEN PAINTING.—The election of Dr. W. H. Miller, of the North Mississippi Medical College, to the office of Attorney and Counsellor at Law, at the bar of the Circuit Court, was held yesterday afternoon, at the office of Mr. W. H. Miller, at 12:30 P.M.

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW.—Mr. W. H. Miller, of the North Mississippi Medical College, was elected to the office of Attorney and Counsellor at Law, at the bar of the Circuit Court, at 12:30 P.M.

OWNER Wanted.—A good house, Water and Gas for sale, for three hundred and fifty dollars, and the legal fees above.

Port of Memphis.

Advertisement.

12½ DOLLARS THAT DO NOT ADVERTISE WILL BE PAID FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

ADVERTISEMENTS MUST BE PAID FOR IN ADVANCE.

ADVERTISEMENTS MUST BE PAID FOR IN ADVANCE.